Paris, 27th—President Carnot returned to-day to Paris.

Paris, 28th—The Municipal Elections were held to-day. The results were as follows:—

Republicans 120.
Conservatives 8.
Boulangists 1.
Ties 59.

Rio Janeiro, 28th—Count San Salvador de Mattosinhos, one of the editors of the paper, O Paiz, retired from the management of that paper to-day. In a manifesto which he published, he states his reason for doing so is the unjust imprisonment of his brother, Sr. Jose Elias dos Reis.

Marshal Hermes de Fonseca, who for some time past held provisionally the post of President of Bahia, was to-day appointed to the post. The situation is very peaceful.

GALVESTON.

Succi has succeeded in reaching his fortieth day of fasting.

The miners in the slate quarries of Wales have gone out on strike: they want more pay.

Paris, 26th—In a Cabinet Council the Minister of Marine declared that he had sent sufficient elements to the African Coast to provide for sustenance during the rainy season. The cruiser Roland has been dispatched to Senegal with sharpshooters to reinforce the garrison at Kotonow.

Berlin, 26th—The Hamburger Nachrichten states that all the German Ambassadors have been summoned to Berlin to personally ventilate before the government all foreign questions.

The Emperor telegraphed instructions to Caprivi as to his line of conduct for the 1st of May. Caprivi advises a uniform line of action to repress disturbances, although it is expected everything will pass off quietly; great precautions, however, are being taken.

The Emperor will be back in the capital on the 30th; he had intended to hold a grand review of the army on the 1st May, but he has postponed it to the 22nd.

A great meeting of workmen was held at Hamburg yesterday. There was an unanimous protest against the employers who threatened to dismiss their employees for refusing to work on the 1st May. They resolved not to work that day and to help all those workers who might lose their occupation in following the dictates of the Workmen's Committee.

The men in a score of trades have gone on strike, including tin smiths, printers carpenters, etc.

Advices from Frankfurt, Breslau, Elberfeld and Hamburg announce that the strikes are becoming general.

London, 26th—Leo XIII is indignant as the proposal of the Italian Government to deprive the Church of the management of the charitable societies. This measure would give the government great financial control and would weaken the power of the clergy. The Cabinet is determined to carry out the step and take from the clergy all vestige of temporal power.

Crispi, it is said, has declared that in case of the Pope's departure he would never allow the Papal treasures to be removed.

Paris, 28th—Carnot has returned. He met with great reception at Grenoble. The Municipal elections went off in peace. In the suburbs the police tore down the Boulangist and Orleanist placards.

Berlin, 28—The Emperor visited Queen Victoria at Darmstadt on Sunday. Her Majesty received yesterday a deputation of the German dragoon regiments of which she is honorary Colonel.

The Entre Rios Disturbances

CRITICAL STATE OF AFFAIRS.

THE POLICE FIRE ON THE PEOPLE.

Parana, April 27th.—The candidates of the popular party were proclaimed to-day in the presence of at least six thousand people without any exaggeration.

One of the groups of the meeting in the act of withdrawing, was attacked by a picquet of armed police, who fired on the people, killing five and wounding many more.

Unwilling to provoke any more bloody conflicts and in obedience to the instructions received from General Racedo, we have submitted to the orders of the Jefe Politico.

It is in this fashion that the rights of citizens and the solemn promises of the President of the Republic are respected here.

The results of such arbitrariness will be fatal, if such despotic acts are not immediately and severely punished.

Indignation is great and the alarm is greater.

Miguel Laurencena.

(LATER)

Parana, 28th—In spite of the prohibition of the Jefe Politico and the instructions of the Electoral Committee, an immense crowd gathered to greet General Racedo. At least six thousand people were present.

The results up to the present are three killed, several wounded, and ninety of our friends arrested.

Far from being intimidated by such attacks, the people are more enthusiastic than ever, gathering fresh determination every moment.

The situation is violent and critical.

The people are determined to enforce respect for their rights.

General Racedo addressed his friends and advised them to be quiet and peaceful. He closed his speech with the words of the Polish patriot:

"In the last emergency we can say to our enemies—we come to fight for your freedom as well as our own."

At this very moment the police are arresting several students of the Normal School.

LA PLATA FINANCES

The financial situation of the Province of Buenos Ayres has so much improved since the sale of the Western Railway for forty-one million gold dollars, that the La Plata Government is again in a position to carry into execution some negotiations of great importance, such as the consolidation of the debt, mooted a year ago, but thwarted by the sudden collapse of speculation and of credit both in this city and La Plata. Governor Paz sees his opportunity and has appointed a financial and confidential agent of the province of Buenos Ayres to the London, Paris, Berlin, and other leading European markets. It is an open secret that the chief business of this financial agent will be the creation of agencies of the Provincial Bank and of the Mortgage Bank and to resume negotiations for the consolidation or conversion of the provincial debt. We might add that among his duties will be the closing of the negotiation for the sale of the Western Railway.

Governor Paz has appointed Senator Pedro A. Costa to fill this most important financial mission in Europe, and all will applaud his choice, as Mr. Pedro Costa is well-known in this market for his commercial and financial knowledge of affairs. Mr. Costa has figured prominently and successfully in many undertakings of great importance and will, no doubt, confirm his reputation for tact and success by carrying out the ends of the financial mission entrusted to him. We understand that Mr. Costa has resigned his Senatorship and will start for Europe about the end of June. He has also resigned his chairmanship of the Provincial electoral committee and, owing to his close relationship with the Governor-elect, refuses to accept any office under the new Government which begins on the 1st proximo.

We append the letter and decree of Finance Minister Toso in this regard;—

"La Plata, April 26th, 1890.

To Sr. Don Pedro A. Costa,

I have the pleasure of informing you that the Executive Power has appointed you Commissioner and Confidential Agent of the Government of Buenos Aires to open negotiations in London, Paris, Berlin and Antwerp, in financial matters affecting the Province and its banks. For your guidance, I copy the decree—

La Plata, April 22nd, 1890,

Whereas Senator Pedro A. Costa is on the eve of his departure for Europe for an indefinite term, and the Province and its financial institutions are opening negotiations of importance with the banking firms of the principal European markets;

Whereas such negotiations must be initiated by a citizen in whom the Executive can place full confidence, and who as intermediary must guard and defend the interests of the Province—a disinterestedness that cannot be expected in negotiations with local firms or with the agents of foreign houses;

The Executive resolves:—

Art. 1—Senator Pedro A. Costa is hereby appointed Commissioner and confidential Agent of the Province of Buenos Ayres to open in the London, Paris, Berlin, and Antwerp markets the financial negotiations in which the province and its banks are interested.

Art. 2—The Commissioner shall follow the instructions handed to him by the Finance Office and shall inform the Minister regularly of his proceedings.

Art. 3—Later on, and in the event of the Executive accepting or realizing the the negotiations opened by the Commissioner, the Executive shall send him full powers to sign the respective contracts.

Art. 4—Let this be communicated, etc.

MAXIMO PAZ,
Jose Toso.

The Finance Office is at present drawing up all the antecedents necessary as a basis for your mission, and when complete they will be forwarded to you.

José Toso.

"O TEMPORA!"

It is indeed a sign of the times, that is to say of the utter disorganization that has crept into the system of government, to see a large consignment of maize a prey to the flames, simply because the Western Railway management are unable to supply wagons to remove the grain. If further proof were necessary, the burning of the 15,000 bags of maize the day before yesterday at Conesa Station, would be another melancholic instance of the gross mismanagement of the Western Railway. This maize had been piled up at that station for months and months; the owner appealed in vain for waggons, as he had no influence in La Plata, no Centros Agricolas, no support from any official quarter. The bags began to rot, then the maize, until the stench poisoned the atmosphere round the station, and it finally became necessary to set fire to the bags and reduce their contents to ashes! We may imagine the exasperation of the poor producer.

In any other constitutional country, the owner of these 15,000 bags of maize would have an action for damages against this worst managed of railways, but here the poor "chacarero" might as well be "whistling jigs to a mile-stone" as apply to the courts, the government, or the railway-board for redress. Such matchless ruin as the destruction of 15,000 bags of maize calls indeed for comment, and to think that millions of money are thus lost by sheer neglect or incompetence on the part of a railway's management!

THE POLITEAMA

A large and fashionable audience attended this theatre on Saturday night to welcome the French Comedy Company headed by Coquelin and the evergreen Judic, the lady making her first appearance on these shores. The opening piece was "La Roussotte", a vaudeville by Hennequin and Millaud, and sooth to say, except for the chance afforded to Judic to exhibit her musical talents, the selection was most infelicitous; there was neither wit nor plot in the piece, and little interest was evinced by the audience except in the admirable impersonation of the title-role by the debutante. Her acting was clear neat and full of chic, but it was in the delivery of the numerous couplets and saynettes with which the piece abounded that she carried her auditors away. Her voice never was a powerful one and time has not increased its volume; nevertheless, the consummate art of the actress enabled her to make every note distinctly heard even in the most remote corner of the vast auditorium; she is a past mistress in this delicate style of vocalism, in which she has never been surpassed, even by Chaumont herself, and we venture to predict that so long as she plays in this class of musical comedy she will attract good audiences, for in this peculiar line she is simply inimitable. M. Huguenet was very good indeed as Medard and formed an admirable support for the star, the remainder of the cast being efficient but having no opportunity to display their capabilities. The after piece in which Coquelin made his rentrée and which did not commence till midnight, was "Les Originaux," a didactic, pedantic, purposeless comedy which was recently revived in Paris by Coquelin after being allowed to remain on the library shelves for a century and a half; so far as any interest or literary excellence is concerned, it could well have slumbered for ever without being disturbed. It was taked up, no doubt, solely with the object of giving Coquelin an opportunity of displaying his talents as a change-artiste; in the course of half an hour he appears successively as a fire-eating soldier, a drunken baron, an Italian, a slow-witted seneschal and a dancing-master. Needless to say that all impersonations were well sustained in the actor's well-known excellent manner; still, he was so handicapped by the ponderosity of the piece that he failed to enchain the attention of the public, the curtain finally descending at 12.50 a.m. to a very entinued house. We may suggest that more care should be taken in the choice of the pieces presented, and that it should be clearly noted that comedies which are applauded by the literary world of Paris at the Theatre Francais are not necessarily certain to be appreciated by the Buenos Ayres public.

One word of praise is due to Mr. Rosensteel and his orchestra for the delicacy and accuracy of their accompaniments, for, in this very difficult phase of the art, they were simply beyond laudation.

RACING.

Although the race for the Premio Porteño more than fulfilled expectations, the remainder of the programme was very disappointing, although good fields turned out. For the principal race, however, 14 faced the starter and a magnificent contest resulted, the brunt of the battle being borne by Sorcier and Acheron, of which pair the former ran very well to the last turn whence he failed to stay home; when he retired, Puygaveau took his place but failed to make any impression on the son of Zanoni and Mineral who won with a bit in hand; had, however, the distance been a hundred metres further, it is not improbable that he might have succumbed to Faust who was running on at the finish, thus making a most creditable debut. The vaunted Avril ran like a pig, Firmin made no show and our selection, Ministro, was practically left at the post, his jockey being afterwards carpeted. Although the way was thus cleared for Acheron, his performance must not be undervalued; it will be as well, nevertheless, for his owner to make hay while the sun shines, as later in the season he is sure to meet his match.

A protest must be lodged against starting races from the 1600 metres post which is on a bend, as some day a serious accident is bound to happen; one nearly took place on Sunday, as, in the Premio Desengaño, Galga, starting from the outside, at once made for the rails, and, in the attempt, all but succeeded in upsetting Estoque. 200 yards from the start, Etincelle fell and Nogoya came to grief over her; we are sorry to say that Etincelle's boy, Fernandez, broke his leg in two places and had to be removed to the hospital.

The start for the 1,400 metres race was most infelicitous, Sapho being allowed a tremedous lead which enabled her to win by a neck from Holyrood who, however, would have reversed the placings in an other 5 yards. In this race the favourite, Neapolis, was struck into, whether intentionally or not we are unable to say, when going well, his chance being thus at once destroyed; to complete the list of contretemps in the same event, a couple of competitors were left at the post; consequently except to the fatuous backers of the fortunate winner, the whole affair was most unsatisfactory.

The other events do not necessitate criticism.

THE ACCIDENT TO THE CITY OF PARIS.

ALL THE DETAILS.

(Per L. & H. Steamer "Leibnitz.")

London, April 1st.

On the evening of the 25th ult., about half past five, the City of Paris was going at full speed, when the starboard engine suddenly collapsed and the low-pressure cylinder was smashed to pieces, breaking the injection and water-pipe connections and bursting in the iron bulkhead dividing the port and starboard engines. Through the hole in the connecting pipes the water rushed into the engine rooms. These immediately filled, compelling the engineers and firemen to rush on deck for safety. Terrible consequences, it is said, might have ensued but for the bravery of the second engineer, who, at great peril managed to shut off the steam, and thus saved the machinery from total demolition. Considerable excitement ensued amongst the passengers, but the captain and officers succeeded in reassuring them. The lifeboats were, however, cleared and held in readiness in view of any emergency, and pumps were kept working. The steamer was quite helpless, and drifted with the tides. On the following day Captain Watkin sent the chief officer and six men in a lifeboat to get into the track of the Transatlantic liners, in the hope of being able to intercept either the City of Chester or the Adriatic, which had left Queenstown for New York. The boat fell in with the Adriatic, but her captain, it is understood, declined to take the City of Paris in tow. Almost at the same time the steamer Aldersgate, from Galveston, bore in sight, and offered to take the liner in tow. The offer was accepted, but the Aldersgate, being a small steamer was unable to proceed more than four or five knots per hour. On Saturday morning the American Liner Ohio bore down on the City of Paris, and stood by her. Meanwhile the Fastnet had been reached, and two tugs arrived from Queenstown. The huge Liner was towed into Queenstown on Sunday morning.

The Aldersgate, which towed the City of Paris to Queenstown, belongs to Houlder Bros. and Co. Glasgow, and is engaged in their steam service between London and the River Plate.

The City of Paris sailed from New York on Wednesday 19th March, with 185 saloon, 83 intermediate, and 140 steerage passengers, besides a full crew, the total number of persons on board being nearly 1,000. The liner carried 785 sacks of mails.

Our Queenstown correspondent telegraphs that the City of Paris still lies in the berth to which she was brought by the tugs on Sunday morning; nor does her condition appear to have been improved by the efforts made to give her greater buoyancy. These consisted chiefly in the substitution of steam for hand pumps. Steam pumps were brought from Cork on Sunday evening and immediately set to work. They do not appear to have proved very successful judging by the lowness of the stern of the steamer in the water. The inrush of water is apparently gaining, notwithstanding all efforts to check it. It is understood that seeing the hazardous state of affairs, still more powerful pumps have been telegraphed for to Liverpool. Should they prove adequate to drive out the water, those in charge will be able to form an opinion as to the best course to adopt. Up to a late hour last night, the actual extent of the injuries was not known, and the reticence shown to those who seek information from the agents appears to be due to the want of it, more than any desire to withhold it. On Sunday divers of Messrs. Enon, of Liverpool, were engaged in examining the vessel, but had not supplied any report as to the result of their investigations. Mr. Cochrane, one of the directors of the Inman line, arrived at Queenstown on Sunday, and took over the superintendence of matters connected with the ship. Mr. Doran, engineer of the company, also spent the day on board the City of Paris. With regard to the suggestions made to beach the ship, it is pointed out that doing so would involve the risk of breaking her back, and that unless some fresh development in the injuries supervene, she is much safer in her deep water anchorage of eleven fathoms.

Owing to the decision of the owners to land all the passengers at Queenstown and transport them to their destinations overland, the railway companies had a sudden demand made upon their resources. All the saloon passengers, numbering two hundred and eighty, were landed at Queenstown on Sunday forenoon, and conveyed to Dublin by a special train leaving at 1.40 p.m. with all baggage. From Dublin they were conveyed by a special London and North Western Railway steamer from North Wall to Holyhead, making a fast and pleasant trip across the Channel in four hours. From Holyhead they proceeded by special train, and arrived at Euston Station at 10.30 yesterday morning. The passengers for Liverpool were also taken home by special train from Holyhead. The steerage passengers, numbering three hundred and forty, were landed later in the day, and with forty tons of baggage, were also conveyed by special train and by special steamer to Holyhead and special train to Liverpool, a large party of Norweigans going thence to Hull.

Mr. James Thomson, of the firm of Messrs. James and G. Thomson, builders of the City of Paris, has left for Queenstown to investigate for himself the cause of the accident to the Inman liner. The Glasgow underwriters will suffer by the mishap. The City of New York, which is at present undergoing repairs at Glasgow, will soon be ready to take the place of the City of Paris.

MEMS. FROM LONDON.

10.30 p.m.

The two principal British delegates to the Berlin Conference, Sir William Houldsworth and Sir John Gorst, started last night via Flushing. I have sent all the details of the appointments of delegates of the different states, which you will no doubt publish previously to or simultaneously with the printing of this letter; as well as the announcement of the death of Baron Dowse, the resignation of the French ministry with particulars that may not be known to you, and other matter I cannot possibly attend to in detail.

In British affairs the little event of the day is the defeat of the Cabinet on Sir Edward Hamley's motion to pay certain expenses of the Volunteers out of the State Funds, when Mr. Stanhope on the part of the War Office suggested they should be met in war time by local subscriptions. The Government defeat is, therefore, not political and is, as the Conservatives say a defeat of the War Office of the Duke of Cambridge and permanent officials. Everyone seems pleased at the defeat of the long-detested and not publicly known "snubbers" of our gallant auxiliary force. As Mr Chamberlain, who headed the opposition, showed, a public subscription to repair accoutrements etc. in case of a sudden mobilisation of the volunteers might be very well in large cities but out of the question in country districts. In fact the whole thing is so absurd and so terribly characteristic of the influences at work behind the Government and of our military arrangements altogether, that whilst the defeat of the War Office may be productive of good the Government itself will feel the blow; and Lord Randolph's "ghastly, bloody rotten fetus" is already excused as an objectionable metaphor and becomes a weird and standing dish on the banquet table of a doomed Cabinet. Again the rumour circulates that the Government will either go out.—shall we say June again?—or will appeal to the country after Easter.

The great rise in the premium on gold draws attention to Argentine finance. You may be interested in an enclosed article from the Financial News glorifying itself for having called "wolf!" so long; and lo! the wolf has come. Argentine securities wobble.

A news agency learns that Lord Dunlo, who not long since married Belle Bilton, one of the sisters Bilton, the music-hall artists, is taking steps to obtain a divorce. Lord Dunlo, it will be remembered, went to Australia directly after the marriage and he is still out of England. The Correspondent is a son of a well-known Bond-street tradesman, and he has already been served with the customary notice of action. Messrs Lewis and Lewis are acting for Lord Dunlo, and when the trial comes on his Lordship's case will be conducted by Sir Charles Russell, whose services have been retained for that purpose. It is not expected that the case will be reached before the Long Vacation.

It ought to be added to the preceding formal account from the Evening Standard that "the customary notice of action" was served on our Bond-street bric-a-brac friend when in a cab with Lady Dunlo. The pair kicked the document out. It was found by a policeman in one of the squares and taken to Messrs Lewis and Lewis who devised means of serving it again. I am not opposed to divorce on principle but I must say if a chap can associate with an actress decently and in order for a few weeks and get rid of her on such easy terms it makes this life pleasant if we choose to take our risks of the life to come.

The decision given by Mr. Justice Kekewich on Saturday in the case of Simmons v. the London Joint Stock Bank, should be welcome to investors who have occasion to leave securities in the custody of their stockbrokers. The plaintiff had authorised Messrs. Delmar and Son—afterwards Herapath, Delmar and Co.—to deal in certain bonds of the Buenos Ayres Land Mortgage Bank, payable to bearer, and known on the Stock Exchange as "Cedulas." Under the consequent transactions a varying number of the bonds were from time to time held on his account, and these he left with Messrs. Delmar for safe keeping. They, however, deposited them, together with property of other clients, with the London Joint Stock Bank as security for large advances. In June, 1888, Messrs. Delmar failed, and Mr. Simmons, finding that his bonds were in the possession of the bank, demanded their re-delivery, but was met with the reply that the bank was a "bona fide" holder without notice of his claim, and since they were negotiable instruments it had now the better title. In ordinary circumstances, of course, this plea would have prevailed, for a person to whom such a security is offered is justified in taking it without further inquiry. But the House of Lords decided two years ago that a bank may not accept securities from money lenders without first inquiring into their title to pledge them. In such a case the probability is that they belong not to the money lender, but to the clients to whom he has advanced money upon them. Although then they may be said to be his to the extent of such advances, and to that extent consequently he may himself pledge them to a bank, yet there his power to deal with them stops, and if a bank accepts them as security for anything beyond, it does so at its own risk. Accordingly, in the case referred to, where railway stock of large value had been deposited with the bank, it was allowed to keep it only to the extent of the £26,000*l* originally advanced by the money lender to his client. On the present occasion Mr. Justice Kekewich had to decide the important question whether the same principle applied in the case of stockbrokers, and he held that it did. With them, as with money lenders, there is a considerable probability that securities in their possession belong not to themselves, but to their clients. If, then, a bank to whom they are offered chooses to accept them without inquiry, it cannot shelter itself afterwards behind the plea that it had no notice of the title of the real owner. Hence he directed that the Cedulas, or their value, must be restored to the plaintiff, and the decision does not appear unreasonable. As the judge pointed out, it will probably incline banks to rely more on the personal responsibility of their customers than upon the securities they bring, and this result, should it ensue, is hardly one to be regretted.

Railway Items.

The Central Argentine Railway Board have notified Government that the tunnel in Rosario, being now finished, awaits official inspection. The Board have, moreover, asked Government to kindly determine the land required to push the rails to the port, and also to prohibit the Rosario Municipality from extending Calle Puerto, which would seriously interfere with the line.

Telegrams from Villa Mercedes state that the works of the railway to Rioja are being pushed forward briskly. The earthworks now reach kil. 42, and seven kilometres of rails have been laid. The contractors have begun laying one kilometre per diem, and the line at this rate will be soon ready for traffic.

We feel much pleasure in welcoming Mr. J. C. Cortinez, who has come down for a few days. He has placed the Andine Railway on a sound working-footing, a task that at one time appeared to be of very considerable difficulty. Mr. Cortinez, and his secretary Mr. Rodriguez, return to Rio Cuarto on Thursday.

On the 25th inst, the dead body of a man was found near Baradero Station, Rosario Railway. The man's name was Geri, and it appears that he was killed while in a drunken state.

On the 24th inst, the guard Valdez had his legs cut off by a train, at Jesus Maria Station, Central Northern Railway.

Dr. Araoz yesterday received a complaint from several people about some goods the Central Argentine Railway had refused to carry on the ground that the Central Northern would refuse to receive the goods when forwarded.

Messrs. Woodgate and Co. have asked Government to draw out the contract of the railway from Venado Tuerto to Cordoba, for which they hold a concession.

The agent of the Central Argentine Railway has applied to the government to open to traffic the Rosario tunnel of that line. The agent also requests that the sites be chosen for fiscal deposits and that the Government put a stop to certain works of the Municipality encroaching on the railway's route.

O. T. S. writes to us as follows about the proposed International Railroad:—

"The Osborne Concession in partnership with the Paraguay Land Company here for a railway from the Paraguay River through the Chaco to Bolivia, is the natural main line, in a practical and geographical point of view, of the International American Railroad.

Besides, Gl. Osborne has been for years in constant connection with the leading men who foster this civilisating enterprise, and the P. L. Cy. is working for the same object.

A glance at the map of South America will convince everybody that the "trunk" line from Bolivia (capital Sucre) must run towards Paraguay (and not to Oran) and from there to Buenos Ayres, with a branch through Argentine Misiones, to Montevideo.

It is very probable that any STANDARD subscriber may travel, without changing saloon, long before this century rings out, from Buenos Ayres, via Paraguay, Sucre and Panama, to visit our Brother Jonathan.

We received the following correspondence yesterday:—

April 26th.

Sir,

Having heard of a good many robberies of luggage on the Buenos Aires and Rosario Railway, and having been a sufferer myself with no hopes of redress, I think it may be for the good of the public if you will insert the following correspondence. On first discovering that my luggage had been robbed I wrote to the manager of the line and received an answer that the matter would be investigated. Some days afterwards the second letter was written, but I did not receive it till a few days ago, which must account for my not sending it to you before.

I am,
Your obdt. servant,
J. Bradney.

B. Ayres and Rosario Railway,
General Manager's Office,
B. Ayres, April 8, 1890.

Dear Sir,

With further reference to your letter of the 29th ultimo:

I have made careful inquiry into the matter, and regret that I have been unable to elicit any corroboration of your statement.

I am informed that you made no complaint that your box had been tampered with when you received it at Rosario, and the Company's servants were unaware of the alleged circumstance until my inquiries were instituted. It is much to be regretted that you did not speak to the Gefe in Rosario upon the subject, so that an investigation might have been made on the spot.

Yours faithfully,
(Signed) C. Wibberly.

Las Rosas,
Cañada de Gomez,
April 23rd.

Sir,

Your letter of the 8th ult. should have been answered before, but I only returned yesterday from Paraguay. I can't help saying I am much surprised at it, as you seem to doubt my word as to the things being stolen out of my box. I can only construe the words "I have been unable to elicit any corroboration of your statement" as such.

The reason I did not speak to the authorities at the Rosario Station was that it was as much as I could do to catch the train for Cañada. I first saw that the lock of the box had been burst, and in consequence took it with me in the carriage, so that it was never out of my sight till I got to this place, when I discovered that several articles had been stolen in the most deliberate manner. I leave, unfortunately, for England on Tuesday next, or I should certainly have tried if I could have got any redress legally; but, as I can't do this, I will publish your last letter to me as well as this reply.

I am,
Your obdt. servant,
John Bradney.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The sensation of yesterday was the political scuffle in Parana, where there was a row on the arrival of General Racedo, one of the candidates for the Governorship. It was at first said that the General himself had been killed, but this happily turned out untrue. The affair has created a very bad impression.

Rarely has any theatre in this city presented so brilliant a spectacle as did the Teatro Nacional last night on the occasion of the amateur performance for the benefit of the British Hospital, the Irish Orphanage and the British and American Benevolent Society; Anglo-Saxon society here was represented by its leaders of both sexes, nor was the foreign element wanting. Pressure on our space and the lateness of the hour prevent us from giving a description in this issue, but to-morrow we will furnish a full, true and particular account of this sucessful and eventful evening.

Signorina Gemma Luzziani, the popular pianiste will give a farewell concert in the Operai saloons on Monday next. The programme includes some of the choicest compositions of Mendelsshon, Chopin, St. Saens, Schumann, Rubenstein and others. Professor Aguirre has kindly volunteered to assist.

The reception of the remains of the great patriot and statesman Dr Rawson was the most solemn and imposing ceremony the country has witnessed since Sarmiento's funeral. The Maipu, with the body on board, left Montevideo on Saturday afternoon and arrived at 2 a.m. on Sunday. There was a "chapelle ardente" on board, with marines on guard. The coffin was covered with wreaths and General Gelly and Drs E. Costa, Podesta, Tamini, Lloveras, Deladeo and Gorostiaga, were on board as a committee in charge of the remains. At 11 o'clock the reception Committee—Drs Monte de Oca, Kyle, Baca, Rawson (grandson of the deceased) and others went off to the Maipu in a "falua." The coffin was then lowered into a boat specially prepared, which was towed to shore by a boat with the remains and the second in another following. The mole was hung in black, and all the lamps, which were lighted also. The Ministers of the Interior, Finance and Worship, General Mitre, the Port Prefect and a crowd of other distinguished people walked down the mole at 11 o'clock. Then some of the numerous societies and provincial delegations ranged themselves on the mole, while the rest took up position on Paseo Julio, which was black with spectators. The coffin was landed and placed on a draped truck. The sailors rolled it to the Resguardia, where the Minister of the Interior read a short speech, and was followed by General Mitre, President of the Central Committee. The coffin was then carried to the hearse a most gorgeous specimen of funeral woe modelled on the Panteon of Paris, with fourteen horses under it, and negro palfreniers at each animal's head. At 1 o'clock the cortege—at least 3000 persons—started for the Recoleta in the order given in our last issue. The bands played a Dead March. All along the route, especially in Calle Florida, there was a dense crowd of people, and the families in the balconies and at the windows, threw flowers as the hearse passed. So long was the cortege that when the hearse reached the cemetery the end of it was at Calle Juncal. Such was the crowd in Plaza Recoleta that the police had some difficulty in making a passage for the remains. After some time the coffin was placed on a mound prepared for it inside the gates, and here Drs Catan, Larrain and Holmberg successively delivered eloquent orations. The coffin was then borne to the vault of the Llavallol family, where it will remain till a monument is erected to the deceased statesman. Fully an hour elapsed before the enormous crowd inside and outside the cemetery fully dispersed.

There is no chance of Congress meeting on Thursday. The honourable Senators stop the way, as only eight of them have as yet arrived in town. President Juarez's indisposition also tends to delay the opening of Parliament.

A Municipal ruction in Rio Cuarto in connection with electioneering is reported, but nobody hurt yet.

The proposal of Public Works Company to enlarge Palermo Park is likely to be accepted. This will cost a lot of cash, and where is it to come from. There's the rub.

Two clumsy swindlers tried a forged cheque for 5000 on the National Bank on Saturday. They stupidly offered the clerk 2000 dollars to cash it for them, and of course, he at once invited a "blue" to join the party.

Forty thousand hectares have been granted to Canon Vivaldi in Chuput Territory, to found a colony of Indians. He must, within three years settle at least one hundred families of the several tribes of Indians.

The debut of the Coquelin Company on Saturday and Sunday nights was a great success. We refer to it in another column. The male portion of the audience in the pit and stalls had a bad time of it, and did not get a glimpse of the stage all night, thanks to the Eiffel Towers of lace, straw feathers and flowers the ladies wore on their charming heads. In London, ladies are not allowed to wear their bonnets in the stalls, and this very sensible rule should be introduced here.

Four new public schools will be officially opened at La Plata to-day, with the usual "interesante fiesta" which, we suppose, means lunch, music and "discursos." The ball mooted for May 1st, to dance in the new Governor, has been thrown overboard: times are too hard, even for spendthrift La Plata to indulge in the mazy.

Advices from Santa Fe report one of the banks there as engaged in the inhuman work of "executing" its debtors, who take the capital punishment with wails of woe.

Favoured Cordoba. The new Normal School there is to be built at an estimated cost of $700,000 (which means a million, or more, in reality) although such an edifice is by no means indispensable and might most appropriately be included in the ten millions reduction in the Budget which the old Cabinet had in contemplation.

In spite of counter-attractions, the Fronton Nacional drew a large crowd on Sunday, due to the announcement that the invincible pair, Irun and Portal, were about to try again the task of giving a square advantage in the service of Elicegui and Samperio. At first, indeed, it seemed as if they could, as Irun played with such fire and skill, and was so ably backed by Portal, that in the first third of the game they had secured a lead of ten aces. Elicegui, however, played with that imperturbable serenity for which he is noted, and by dint of two or three "entradas" not only got on level terms, but put his score to 42 against 36. Irun then pulled himself together and got up to 43 all, which caused the game to be lengthened to 50. The excitement was at boiling pitch point, when Irun, in attempting to take Elicegui's service on the volley, missed two aces, after which he went all to pieces, leaving Elicegui to win by five aces.

An organ recital will be given at Saint John's Anglican Church to-morrow evening, commencing at half past eight o'clock, punctually. We understand that the programme consists chiefly of pieces which have not hitherto been given at any entertainment of a similar nature in this city, and hope Mr Barnes will have as large an audience as on the occasion of his previous recital. All lovers of the art are cordially invited to attend.

Our active and thoroughly independent Concordia contemporary the Amigo del Pueblo tips Mr. Saba Hernandez as the winner in the race of the Governorship of Entre Rios.

There was a large number of visitors at the Tigre Hotel on Sunday. This establishment is so splendidly situated and so comfortably fitted up; the service and the "cuisine" are so good, and its general attractions so many, that it is deservedly gaining more public patronage. As a holidayr esort it cannot be surpassed.

The funeral honors to Aurelio Saffi's memory at the Operai saloons on Sunday were very imposing. All the Societies in town were represented. Amongst the speakers was Signor Mariano Froncini, a personal friend of Saffi's.

The new Minister of Justice, Dr. Alcorta, intends to lay before Congress a Bill to make their worships, the Justices of Peace, get through their work somewhat faster than they have done from time immemorial. This will be a public boon.

Hurry up, gentlemen exhibitors. To-morrow will be the last day for sending exhibits to Palermo. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday none except the Committee and Jurors will be allowed inside the exhibition grounds, and on Sunday the show starts.

Messrs Drangosch and Beines, the well-known music publishers, have favoured us with "En Courant," an original piece by Benjamin Godard, for the piano, an admirable exercise for students, which we recommend to our lady readers.

Que ocupó hasta hace poco la imprenta de "El Nacional", à media cuadra de la Plaza de la Victoria, Localidad importantisima, que no necesita encomiasticas referencias, por ser de todos conocida, y porque su ubicacion es el mejor reclamo que puede hacerse en su elojio.
Se impone por si mismo—1080 varas cuadradas de superficie mas ó menos, con la infima base de 200,000 pesos mjn, que pueden producir una renta de $2,000, 6 sea el 1 ojo mensual, que en propiedades tan centrales es una bonita renta.
El Martes 29 de Abril,
A las 3 de la tarde, procederémos á vender por orden terminante de su dueño, siempre que excede la infima base establecida para la venta la notable propiedad arriba mencionada, cuyo terreno se compone de 14m 10cts, ò 16 varas 28 ctvs. de frente al este por 59 m. 25 cts. ó sean 68 vs. 42 cts. de fondo, preveniendo que por la linea del costado sud tiene un martillo en contra que empieza á los 43 m. 75 cts. de la linea de la calle y consta de 2 m. 80 cts. siguiendo asi ha ta el fondo cuyo contrafrente tiene II m. 30 cts. ó sean poco mas de 13 varas, haciendo una superficie de 802 m. 35 cts, ó sean 1079 varas 74 centivaras cuadradas mas ó menos, "Ad Corpus."
AD CORPUS
A la gente de dinero que hoy no sabe como invertirlo para que le produzca una buena renta sin arriesgar el capital y que sin colocacion sobre no producirle se desvaloriza cada dia, le recomendamos la adquisicion de esta gran propiedad, que le representara siempre un valor real y positivo y una segura y productiva renta.
Tengan en cuenta lo que hoy representa el papel moneda; sus fluctuaciones y lo lejana que esta la conversion y piensen tambien que la base de $200,000 apenas representan $70,000 de la buena moneda y que seria necesario que Buenos Aires desaparecieta para que la vara de tierra en ese local dejara de valer menos de $150 oro la vara cuadrada; precio que representa el doble de la base fijada para la venta.
Todo comprador abonara el 5 ojo al firmar el boleto.

ON 'CHANGE.

First Ring............ 244.50
Second Ring............ —

Monday, April 28th.

The week opened on a rather firmer gold market, and some Entre-Riano telegrams industriously circulated on the Bolsa before the ring opened helped to keep up the steadily falling gold premium. Many, on the strength of these telegrams, expected to see gold to day at 250, but the current is too strong for any political rumours, and the weight of the ready gold lying in the banks in account current is too much for the gold bulls, and points to still lower rates for the end of May. It was whispered that some very important business is going on between the Finance Minister and some well-known London bankers, and which will probably be concluded before Congress opens. Paper is beginning to be felt tight and gold abundant, and the month's liquidation will be the test.

Business at the first hour embraced the sale of something over half a million dollars, nearly all for cash, the rate opening at 243, fluctuating between 245 and 242.50 and closing at 244.50 between buyers and sellers. Brokers reported gold firm on account of the liquidation, which will decide as to whether a further fall may be expected or not. In stocks there was a general weakish tendency from some cause, but there was no unloading, and the decline in the quotations is rather due to a falling off of buyers. National Bank Shares closed at 143, Constructors at 35 and Catalinas at 37.50. Cedulas were quiet and fairly firm.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring: -

At the meeting of Bolsa members held to-day, the new amended statutes and bye-laws drawn up by Drs. Obarrio and L. V. Lopez, made up in pamphlet form, were handed round. It was resolved to adjourn the meeting for a few days in order to give the members time to study and digest the changes. A committee of seven members was named for a similar purpose, so that comment would be premature until the committee issue their report. The changes, on hasty perusal, do not seem to be many or important.

As usual, owing to the meeting, there was no second ring to-day.

Exchange continues firm and brokers quoted to-day 48-48½d., 5.05-06 francs and 5.07-09 francs Antwerp.

The meeting of shareholders of the Sociedad General de Credito was held on Saturday, 140 shareholders, representing 33,260 shares, being present, and Mr. Luis Castells occupying the chair. It was resolved to authorize the board either to reduce the capital or liquidate the concern altogether as it should deem fit. Dr. M Murphy was named syndic and Messrs. J. Maglioni and J. A. Uriburu directors.

The Sociedad Mercantil also held its meeting on Saturday, the report and balance-sheet being presented and approved. According to the latter the profits amount to 138,795 dols., but no dividend will be declared for the present. Dr. D. Brito del Pino was named syndic and Dr. Venancio Lopez and Messrs. P. Garcia, Diago and Placido Garcia directors.

According to La Plata advices, there is a trifle more activity on the Bolsa there, some operations having been effected in Territorial shares at 4.90 to 5 dols. and Lenusse Bank shares at 20 dols.

This was a day of general leave taking on 'Change. Mr. John Zimmermann, who is so deservedly popular on and off 'Change, took leave of his many friends. He sails to-morrow in the Atrato and we all hope to see him soon back. Mr. Shennan, the well-known estanciero, also bid good-bye. Mr. Kirchhofer, of the firm of Wipperling, Kirchhofer and Co., the leading wine firm, also sails in the Atrato. Mr. Nelson also leaves for England. He represents one of the largest, the best and most flourishing business in the Plate and it could not be in abler hands. The new fabric near Quilmes, which he is erecting, will outrival the great Liebig factory at Fray Bentos. M. Chevalier Boutell also took leave. He will arrive in London just in time to find Argentine credit on the crest of the wave. We wish all our friends a pleasant trip and hope to see them all back before the end of the year.

Bands of music held the Flores road, and flags of all colors hung over the side walks to remind the investing public of the two great auctions held on Sunday afternoon. One auction was for account of the Constructora de Flores, seventy-eight lots south of the Rev. Mother Fitzgerald's college, near Almagro, and the other houses and building sites on the Gauna road. We noted, however, that far more people went to the Fronton Nacional than to the auctions, and although it is certainly a very admirable combination, selling properties and taking payment in shares of the company that calls the sale, still there is not that interest taken now in property that there was last year, and these land property companies would consult the interests of their shareholders by not pressing too much real estate on the market at present.

A hundred and twenty certificates of the Banco de Italia, ten per cent paid, were sold this morning at thirty dollars m/n gold cash. This is about two hundred per cent per cent premium on the money paid. This stock is considered the best and cheapest in this market.

The Minister of the Interior received telegrams from Entre Rios to-day announcing General Racedo's arrival at Parana to-day and that the rioting took place yesterday. Everything is now quiet. A Cabinet Council was held about Entre Rios, in the Minister of the Interior's office.

The Custom House returns to-day were:—

Messrs. Madero and Co. have protested against the Argentine Consul at Conchillas B. O. laying a tax on the sand and stone for the Port Works.

The following important commercial telegrams which we take from La Argentina shew that Argentine values abroad reflect still further improvement.

London, April 26—Argentine values all up. 1882 loan has risen ½ o/o to 78½ o/o; sterling bonds loan closed at 101 o/o; Provincial cedulas I rose 2 o/o to 35 o/o.

Berlin, April 25—Argentine 4½ o|o loan has improved 1 o|o to 78½ o|o. National Cedulas 35 o|o. In the salted hide market certain classes have improved and others fallen off.

Harre, April 25—There is no change in the hide market. River Plate saladero novillo hides 23 to 25 kilos command 49½ francs the 50 kilos and those of 28 to 29 kilos 60 francs the 50 kilos.

Leipzig, April 25—Hide market very dull and business difficult.

The report and balance sheet of the Sociedad Territorial de La Plata were handed round to-day, made up in bulky pamphlet, of which the main feature is an exhaustive inventory of the company's properties. The report, though short, is almost taken up entirely by an explanation from the board of the difficulties they have had to contend with in the shape of morose debtors, clamorous creditors and unrealizable assets, the unfavourable state of the market being also dwelt upon. Turning to the balance-sheet, it can be seen that the company's financial position is by no means roseate, as the cash on hand amounts to a bagatelle of 31,000 dols., whilst there are claims for over 2¾ millions to be met. Against this the company set off 9,741,000 dols. due by purchasers of properties who pay by instalments. The board, in submitting the report, shew that during their two years' term of office, they have wiped off debts to amount of 4½ millions with all the interest thereon, thus giving a clearing off of nearly a round six millions. As the report and balance-sheet will undoubtedly be handled in strict detail at the meeting, we refrain from furteer remark at present.

According to late European advices, the French Press are publishing severe articles on the Argentine Republic, due to the fall in Argentine values, which reflect a loss to French investors calculated at 58 million francs. This no doubt coincides with the first general depreciation of Argentine stocks in Europe caused by the rise in gold; but the fall in the premium now will naturally cause a reaction and moderate the criticisms of the Press.

It was rumoured to day that Dr. Juan A. Garcia, president of the National Mortgage Bank, has submitted to the Government a scheme for the issue of 100,000,000 dollars in mortgage bonds. In view of the high standing of the author of the measure in the market and his close connection with the Government, should the rumour prove to be true, too much importance cannot be attached to it. It is well also to bear in mind that this issue of mortgage bonds meets with a large share of approval in the market, where it had been ventilated and discussed some time back as a remedy for the crisis. The scheme will probably contain an article providing for the redemption of the bonds by the application of both interest and amortization.

Mr. W. Shand, the well known pioneer estanciero of Entre-Rios, took leave of his friends to-day. He goes to Europe in the Atrato, and expects to be back in the Plate next October.

Let no shareholder of the Territorial de La Plata forget the meeting to-morrow (Tuesday), at 2 p m., as the whole future prospects of the company depend to a large extent, if not entirely, on the result of the voting. In a word, it is simply a case of "to be or not to be." Let every man do his duty, cost what inconvenience it may, and we will guarantee that he will have no cause for regret, for it is quite possible that with good, sound business men entering on the directory the shares may rise like a bird on the wing. The best ship that ever was built could make no headway without a proper complemenr of officers and crew.

List of passengers per s.s. Leibnitz, sailed from Southampton 3rd April and arrived at Buenos Aires April 28th:—Messrs F W Marshall, A S Douglas, J Gibson, J W Laudrey, K M Hunsley, Mrs F Botfield and family, Messrs W R Breen, S Shipton, C L Edwards, A E Jefferies, A L Mathewson, G Fairchild, H S Mills, Mrs M Murray and child, Messrs W May, W Faulkner, W Stockwell, F Wood, A W Burn, D Macdonald, G Blakeman, W Buck, H W Greenslade, C H Shardlow, A E Edbrook, C Musgrave, W C C Harper, C W Hesslegrave, G Youles, J Hamp, F Phillips, C A Lake, A Roy, A Matkin, W E Wright, G A Jones, H Behenna, W Baker, E Duffin, Miss E Aikin, Mr E A Craig, Mr R Sparks, Mrs Cremonini and family, Mrs J Luna, Messrs G Britton, T Britton, C Garland, and H Wheeler.

Entre Rios advices contain nothing but the electioneering intelligence of the Hernandez and Racedo bands. The former being supported by the Provincial government seems more likely to carry the day, and the canvass is being vigorously pushed. Dr Gilbert, Finance Minister of the Province, resigned his post on being named Deputy to Congress and started for this city yesterday in company with his brother deputies.

The arrivals of cereals in Rosario on Saturday comprised 15,000 bags of wheat, 17,000 bags linseed, 1000 bags maize. In the Centro Comercial two transactions were effected, 5,000 dollars gold sold for cash at 245 and 5000 for end month at 245½.

The meeting of shareholders of the Banco Inmobiliario took place on Saturday, Mr Devoto in the chair. It was resolved to reduce the capital from $15,000,000 to 7,000,000 and to name Mr J Dodero syndic.

The following passengers leave in the steamship Atrato:—Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Rubens, Mr. C G Gordon, General Charles Clarke, Pedro Hoss, Mr Moody, P Hammond, F H Chevalier, Louis I and family, L T Wright and family, Mr L Walker, Mr Van Deurs, Mr and Mrs D W Greene, Mr T Clarke, Mr Coombe, Mr B Shinwell, Mr and Mrs Sword, Mr and P Kirchoter, Misses Meyers, Mr G C Rice, Mr Stickney, Mr and Mrs G Russel and child, Mr E Brawne, Mr T Egersdorf, Dr Mackern and family, Mr Cleve, Mr Calmeyer, Mr Walte, Dr Ernest Aberg, E R Holland, Mr Meyer, Sr Botet de Cautilo, Mrs Miller and child, Mrs Shaw and servant, Mrs S Hanna, child and maid, Mr J Bradley, Mr Liston, Mr F Jacobs, Mr and Mrs Nelson and maid, Mr E Hirschberg, Mr E P T Hillier, Miss Robson, Mr. J. Zimmermann and family, Miss McKinlay and maid, Sr. M. J. Cobo, wife and servant, Mrs. and Miss Reid, Mr. D. Shennan, Mrs. Roland and Mr. William Shand.

Lord Mayor Seeber has requested the Corporation to allow him two hundred thousand dollars for extraordinary expenses, instead of the fifty thousand dollars proposed, as the latter sum is totally insufficient. Mr. Seeber is evidently determined to cut his cloth to the measure, and not increase the financial muddle. He shows that his predecessors in office were terribly lavish of expenditure, disbursing two millions and a half in 1887, one million and a half in 1888, and six hundred thousand dollars in 1889, although the estimate only allowed 100,000, 200,000 and 100,000 respectively. This state of affairs could not last long, and we are glad to see that Mr Seeber looks at the matter in the right light.

Minister Toso has issued the decree fixing the date of the auction of San Nicolas chacras for 5th June. These properties were expropriated by the Government to enlarge the town, and will be brought to the hammer with the upset price of the mortgage Cedulas on them, which consist of 100,000 J, 20,000 L, 150,000 M and 1,119,600 P. Buyers must pay the difference between the face value of the Cedulas and the market value, as well as any increase in the bidding over the upset price. The usual facilities for payment on time will be given.

There can in fact be no doubt that under Mr Livingston's able management the Banco Constructor is picking up fast. He has instituted strict economy in the expenditure, having reduced the monthly expenses by 7000 dollars, which although bagatelle for such a large concern points to a saving and prudent management all round and careful administration. Another item suppressed is the 5 o|o of the profits enjoyed by the last managing director which amounted to nearly a quarter of a million dollars per annum. All these items taken together sum up in course of time, and their suppression has been welcomed and approved by the shareholders.

We note with pleasure that Mr. Viner Clarke, whose interesting correspondence from the Chaco we published some time ago, has hit upon a very good idea, which we trust he will be enabled to realize. His idea is to start buildings here more or less on the Peabody system, and we need hardly say that, in this city of exorbitant rents, such a project will be gladly welcomed. The workman is not sufficiently looked after here, and any project that would tend to do away with the awful "conventillo" system must be good. The great success of the buildings erected by the Banco Constructor foreshadows that of a Peabody building. We have everything here except the capital, but we hope this difficulty will be soon overcome. Mr. Viner Clarke, who leaves to-morrow in the Atrato, has received many letters of encouragement from the Rev. Thos. H. Stockton, Mr. Fred. Fletcher, Mr. A. M. Milne, Mr. John J. Kyle, Rev. Pelham Ogle, Mr. Sam. Abbott, Mr. Alfred H. Cox, Mr. B. Mitre y Vedia (Nacion), and others who have so often called attention not only to the advisability but to the necessity of cheap tenement buildings for the thousands of workmen and artisans in Buenos Aires. Mr. Viner Clarke's address is Doncaster, Yorkshire, England. We hope to see him back soon.

It was announced to-day that the Banco Constructor de La Plata has received an offer from London of 15 cents per square yard for its 32,000,000 square yards in Bahia Blanca. The board, it seems, holds out for a higher price, and we believe have under consideration a most favorable offer, but payable in shares which will in all probability be accepted as the withdrawal of shares being necessary to reduce the capital it is the same to the bank to receive shares or cash in payment. The bank sold yesterday by auction in La Plata the 6 houses advertised, all selling well at over 50 o/o profit to the bank on the upset price which is the valuation of the balance sheet.
